BECOMES STATE BANK.

Financial Institution at Center Point Absorbs Another.

Austin, Oct. 1.—Based on the assurance that the next legislature will pass a law guaranteeing bank deposits, Commissioner of Banking Love has been advised by the Guadalupe Valley bank of Center Point that it has absorbed the First National bank of Center Point and the last named bank is to be converted into a state bank; that the new banking law of Texas has been sufficiently tested now to insure depositors of its permanency and safety, hence the change which has been made.

In answer to inquiries sent out from Dallas to the commissioner of insurance concerning the Great Western Life Insurance company, Commissioner Love announced that this company has no permit to do business in Texas for 1908; that the company withdrew its application for renewal of permit after being advised by the commissioner that it would not be renewed.

Assistant Attorney General Lightfoot, Special Counsel Allen and County Attorney Brady leave Saturday for Washington to represent the state in the Waters-Pierce Oil company cases, which comes up next week in the United States supreme court. The state will submit its motion to dismiss the main case on the grounds that no Federal question is involved and will oppose the motion of defendant company to consolidate the petroleum and receivership cases. General Davidson leaves next Monday. Messrs. Lightfoot and Allen will go on to New York and submit evidence in Standard Oil and American Book company cases.

Saved by Hero.

Mexia, Tex., Oct. 1.—W. B. Jackson narrowly escaped an awful death at his gin. His clothing became entangled in the shafting. As he whirled around Engineer M. Story risked his life and held Jackson. All the latter's clothes were torn off. He was not badly hurt.

BRAVE MISS ROBERTS.

By Use of Strategy Turns Tables Upon an Intruder.

Dallas, Oct. 1.—Miss Roberts, living on Cochran street, was awakened by a white man, who entered her room by cutting the screen. Under threats she was forced to dress and accompany him. Offering an excuse, she returned to her room, secured a revolver and fired upon the intruder, the bullet piercing his hat. The man fled. He had been prowling around the neighborhood several nights.

Equitable Loses Case.

Austin, Oct. 1.—The Equitable Life Assurance society lost an important case. A jury in the district court rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff in the case of Ellis vs. Equitable Life Assurance society, in which the plaintiff sought $25,000 on one policy and the same amount on another. The jury awarded plaintiff $33,670, including interest and attorney's fees. A new trial application was filed.

The plaintiff is the mother of the late Caswell G. Ellis, who was killed on the Ellis plantation some time ago.

Bates Badly Beaten.

Houston, Oct. 1.—Henry Bates, a real estate dealer, was attacked and beaten unconscious as he was entering his home early Thursday by two men, who made good their escape. It is believed they assaulted Bates because of an old grudge as nothing was taken from his person. The men were well dressed.

Honest Man Handsomely Rewarded.

Houston, Oct. 1.—A laundry wagon driver while sorting linen found a cluster of diamonds in a pillow case sent in by Mrs. Bert Dodge. The gems are worth over $2,000 and the driver returned all to the owner, receiving a handsome reward.

Dead Infant Found in Well.

Sherman, Tex., Oct. 1.—Hester Moore, a negress, was remanded back to jail on a habeas corpus hearing on a charge of murder. Her infant child was found dead in a well near Van Alstyne.

BASTES SOCIETY BRIDES.

Not Sufficiently Cultured to Interest Foreign Noblemen.

St. Louis, Oct. 1.—The following has caused quite a sensation in society circles:

Miss Ethel Barrymore, the actress, whose entree into the best of American and English society is unquestioned, made the astonishing declaration an interview at St. Louis that the most useless, brainless and purposeless order of beings in the world constitute the elite society of America. She expressed the opinion that the international marriages with American society girls have proven a failure is because the brides have not enough mentality, culture, education and serious purpose to interest the foreign noblemen, or to meet the requirements of the situation they find there.

"There is no occasion for brains in our society, at least not in that New York, that I have seen, and consequently girls do not prepare themselves or cultivate their capacities. If you can join gracefully into the amenities of an ordinary dinner table you'll pass muster, but if you should happen to touch on anything that the real men of our country are doing—the men who are accomplishing things—or if you should venture into an intellectual discussion of political issues or problems or of books or any of the various multiple interests which might appeal to one of any mental capacity you would be shunned as a frightful bore."

"The women of wealth are merely selfish and pigish and are utterly content with comfortable living quarters, a good dinner, a little polo or bridge or a rapid automobile or two. They are empty shells and perfectly meaningless and useless to the country."

Miss Barrymore hastened to add that in declaring that American women are not intellectually equipped for noblemen's wives, she did not refer to the great middle class—the working or the accomplished women—but only to society girls.

Press Campaign Contributions.
Chicago, Oct. 1.—At Democratic national headquarters an itemized statement has been made public showing campaign contributions from newspapers to date have reached $84,994.

Bryan Back at Lincoln.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 1.—Hon. W. J. Bryan returned home Thursday. He was warmly welcomed. Since leaving Lincoln Mr. Bryan has traveled over 7,000 miles and delivered 200 speeches.

Truly Sad Calamity.

Greenville, Tex., Oct. 1.—While Mrs. Mollie Jones, a widow, and her seven children were picking cotton near Clinton, fire completely destroyed their home.

Mixed Opinions.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 1.—Governor Haskell's appeal for popular funds with which to fight both Hearst and Roosevelt was received with mixed opinions, many condemning his plans and others wanting to drop the entire dispute. So far Haskell has not filed any suits against the president or Hearst and does not intimate when he will.

Two Men Asphyxiated.

Memphis, Oct. 2.—J. A. forty-two years old, a merchant Paso, Ark., and J. P. Price, a mill operator of Beebe, Ark., asphyxiated in a hotel here. It is believed they blew out the gas.

Case of State vs. Felix Brown on Trial.

The time of the District court was occupied Wednesday and Thursday with the case of the state vs. Felix Brown, charged with murder in the first degree. The state was represented in the trial by District attorney J. Felton Lane and County Attorney Lamar Bethea, while the defendant was represented by Messrs. W. C. Davis and Robert Armstrong, who were appointed by the court to perform this service and without money and without price, they fulfilled the requirements of the court with a thoroughness and fidelity that spoke the lofty ideas they hold as to the manner of discharging a duty imposed upon them.

The case was given to the jury at about 6:30 p. m.

At 9 o'clock, having failed to reach a verdict, the jury was locked up for the night.

GODWIN-O'NEAL.

Mr. James Godwin of this city and Miss Nettie O'Neal will be united in marriage at noon today at the home of the bride's parents at Normangee, and later will return to this city and occupy the home recently erected by the groom in the northern part of the city. Only a few relatives will witness the ceremony. Mr. Godwin occupies a position as machinist at the gin and planing mill of S. H. Dunlap & Co., in this city, and his numerous friends will extend to him and his bride their sincere good wishes.

NOTICE WOODMEN CIRCLE.

Hearst furnishes the muck and Roosevelt slings it.

Roosevelt's preeminence as a butter-in and a blow-hard is not to be disputed.

It was doubtless a black hand that placed that dynamite bomb under the pulpit of that negro church in Corvina.

Georgia heiress ran away with unmarried chauffeur.
Level-headed is a good second to Deaf.

The mustang pony, the longhorn cow and the razorback hog belong to the era of romance in Texas history, along with the Indian and the stage robber. The present is a practical generation.

Taft's proposed "campaign of dignity and silence" is medieval history now.

We are just aching to see that poem of Swinburne's that won the Nobel prize.

Roosevelt has done more to disgrace the president's chair than all his predecessors together.

"Diogenes looked for an honest man with a lantern," says the Houston Chronicle. We have always been under the impression that Diogenes carried the lantern.

Intelligent farmers have learned that vegetable breeding is as important as animal breeding. There is much in the stock of corn as the stock in the stock of hogs.

Keep it before the great Roosevelt is costing taxpayers nearly a billion dollars and Taft says he is going just like Roosevelt.

"A good farmer can make a good farm out of most anything in the way of land," observer Farm and Ranch. Since farmers have learned to draw fertilizers from the air instead of buying them from the stores, the quality of the land is of secondary importance.

The Waxahachie Light boasts that after two years pulling for graveled streets it has succeeded in getting a mudhole filled with crushed rock. This sounds like being thankful for small favors.

Col. Cecil A. Lyon, just returned from Republican national headquarters, predicts Taft's election. But at the same time he predicts Simpson's election, and this discredits him as a prophet.

Foraker's friends will stand by him and prominent Ohio Republicans are predicting the disruption of the party as a result of Roosevelt's policy of abuse. "Quern Deus vult perdere prius dementat."

Bryan's last letter to Roosevelt was a solar plexus blow. The president's advisers will not let him attempt to answer it. Meanwhile, Democrats all over the country are praying that Teddy will take the stump for Taft.

If Texas Democrats believed that Congressman John Garner was in any real danger there would be something doing in the cactus district, but they feel confident that he, as well as Slayden and Burleson, is safe.

Titus county nightriders pasty, not that vegetable breeding is as important as animal breeding. This aroused the citizens and they have organized to suppress lawlessness. The gins are now guarded and are running full time.

About 200 negro cotton-pickers have deserted the fields in Falls county and gone to other points in the north and west. By and by they will be wanting to come back and then the farmers will have a chance to get even.

In Oklahoma when a citizen fails to pay his tax the sheriff arrests him. When a railroad company is delinquent the sheriff attaches an engine and chains it to the track. Oklahoma has a strenuous people and a strenuous government.

The opposition of the bankers' convention to guaranteed bank deposits and to postal savings banks is practically unanimous. Bankers are like other people, they look out for their own interest. But the people are demanding better security for deposits and the bankers will be forced to accept either the guarantee of deposits or the postal savings bank.

The Republican national committee was circulating as a campaign document the so-called Cleveland letter advocating the election of Taft, but since the letter has been proven a forgery the committee has withdrawn it. The eager seizing upon and circulating a forged document without investigation shows to what desperate straits our friends, the enemy, are reduced.

The Bryan members of the Bohemian club band had a good practice last night. The membership of the band is nearly equally divided between College Station and Bryan.
It is a matter of common notoriety that many sportsmen pay little attention to the game law and that arrests for its violation are rare. It ought to be enforced or repealed.

At 10:30 o'clock the teachers attended the chapel exercises at the T. W. C.

In the afternoon Miss Essie McSwain gave an "Outline of Texas History."

County Superintendent Parker occupied his period with a talk on reports and school records and the importance of keeping these full and correct. Prof. Parker has evolved a method of keeping a teacher's register with the form now used by the schools, which contains many advantages over the manner heretofore employed.

Prof. Lawson discussed in an able way the "Basic Principles of Teaching;" Miss Broome, of T. W. C., interested the teachers in a talk on art and drawing; Miss Bessie Stallings gave a select reading.

Mr. Challener was a visitor during the day and addressed the teachers, as did also Dr. Hill of Edge.

Lady, Whose Husband Deserts Her,
Wishing to Die, Relative Snaps Pistol, Thinking It Unloaded, and Bullet Penetrates Woman's Brain.

New York, Oct. 1.—An unfortunate affair occurred near here.

Mrs. Estelle Borgman, thirty-two years old, was shot and killed in her home at Carona, Long Island, by her brother, William Katties, eighteen years old, who is attached to the school ship Newport. He says the shooting was accidental. He was arrested.

Mrs. Borgman was deserted by her husband some years ago and has been demented most of the time since. She was released from the asylum at Islip only a few months ago and since then has had periods of depression. Previous to the tragedy she sat on the edge of her bed, bemoaning her fate and threatened to commit suicide. She said she was tired of life and wanted to die. It is said that one means of cheering her which the family employed was to ridicule her and make her angry.

Katties says that when his sister kept repeating that she would kill herself he displayed his revolver and offered it to her as a means of ending her life. He said he supposed it was entirely unloaded and began snapping the hammer preparatory to going further with the offer. He did not know there was one good cartridge in the weapon. As the hammer came down on it his sister, who was standing by the window, out of which he was pointing the revolver, the bullet entered behind the left ear and tore clear across the brain.

Prompt Action Taken.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 1.—The United States government has taken prompt action in the Fitzgerald murder, sending three of the ablest detectives in the service to the scene within less than twenty-four hours after the inspector was shot, and they are already on the hunt for W. A. Sorsby. They have furnished the Associated Press the following description of Sorsby, and ask that the widest publicity be given it so that agents of the government everywhere may be on the lookout for the fugitive.

"W. A. Sorsby, Clinton, Miss.; aged 23; height 6 feet 1 1/2 inches; weight about 180 pounds; hair sandy brown; short, rather thin on top and worn pompadour; scant beard and smooth shaven; blue eyes; round, fat face; high forehead; small flat nose; wears No. 7 shoe; wore light gray suit when last seen; dresses neatly; talk rapidly; walks erect and is rather handsome."

Governor Noel authorizes a reward of $200 for Sorsby, and it is supposed the governor will offer a still larger one.

The detectives here, Ralph Smith, W. B. Ashton and C. B. Leonard, state that the government will leave no stone unturned, and though it may take some time, they will eventually get him.
